

HIV 101 Quiz

Print Name _____

Date _____ Department _____

1. _____ is the virus that causes AIDS; it attacks and weakens the immune system.

2. Some of the early symptoms of HIV infection are swollen glands, skin problems, and weight loss. True or False

3. Some people infected with HIV can live for years without showing signs of being sick. True or False

4. List at least two body fluids that can transmit HIV. _____, _____

5. List as least two risky behaviors that can transmit HIV. _____, _____

6. List at least two places where HIV can enter the body. _____, _____

7. Nothing can be done to prevent an HIV pregnant woman from passing the virus onto her baby. True or False

8. Abstinence is an effective way to prevent HIV transmission. True or False

9. It may take 3 months for a person newly infected with HIV to have a positive antibody test. True or False

10. A person who is HIV positive can still pass the virus onto others if he/she does not feel sick. True or False

Employee Signature _____